

STUDENT LANDSCAPE DESIGN CONTEST

If you love gardening and want to tap into your creative side, enter the Landscape Design Contest sponsored by the Medina County Home & Garden Show. You could win $200 and a portion of your design will be installed at the Show. The winning creation will also be replanted as a mini garden at the soon to open Hospice of Medina County with a special plaque in recognition of your efforts. Entries will be judged by a panel of landscape professionals and displayed at the show.

Contest Rules

1. You must be a Medina County high school student to enter
2. For your entry you must present a scaled drawing of the garden and a budget list of all materials used.
3. Your budget for plant materials will not exceed $500. Mulch and pavers/hardscape can be included in the design but do not need to be part of the budget.
4. The portion of your design to be recreated at the Home & Garden show will be no larger than an 8' deep X 10' wide space but you can design your landscaping to any size.
5. All entries must be delivered to your high school office by March 15, 2010
6. All entries must have the registration form below attached.
7. For any questions, email medinahomegardenshow@gmail.com
8. The judges and show management reserve the right to make modifications to the design, if necessary, for proper installation at the show.
